Having voted in the negative on the passage, on yesterday, of the resolution concerning Federal interference in South Carolina, I deem it but an act of justice to myself that I be permitted to state that my objections to the resolutions applied mainly to the phraseology of the preamble. I unhesitatingly condemn and protest against the usurpations of the President as not only in violation of the constitution and the laws of the land, but subversion of the principles of free government and the rights of a free people.

I yield to no man in the most hearty endorsement and approval of the conservation and peaceable conduct of the people of South Carolina, in the trying ordeal to which they have been subjected.

The honest men of the country can but desire that they shall be speedily restored to honest government, administered by honest and competent men of their own selection uninfluenced by bayonets and military force.

Movements of Cotton in Raleigh.

We omitted our regular cotton report on last week. We therefore now give it for two weeks and bring up our report to date.

Receipt for the week ending Dec, 1st, 1876, 1 834 bales; same week last year, 1,209; increase in receipts for the week this year, 625. Receipt for the week ending Dec. 8, 1876, 2 323; same week last year, 1,344; increase in receipts for the week this year, 979. Receipt for month of Nov., 1876, 9 127; same week last year, 6,784; increase in receipts for the month Nov. this year, 2 343. Whole receipts since 1st Sept. to date, 29,031; same time last year, 23 121; increase in receipts to date this year, 5,910.

The continued increase in receipts is very gratifying, and promises well for the business prospects of the city. The receipts of cotton for the month of November, 1874, are 5,816 bales It will thus be seen that our receipts have nearly doubled in two years. While the market in other places has been depressed and prices lower, our market has remained firm at full prices and closed yesterday at 11¼@11¼ for middlings.

Union Meeting.

The Young Men's Christian Association, in commencing their winter work among the poor, will hold, this evening, in the Presbyterian Church, a religious union meeting on behalf of the poor of Raleigh. Last winter the meeting was held, Treasurer, Church, and was large audience a noble, disinterested serves the highest our citizens

Our Paper.

We thank Father Evans, of the Milton Chronicle, for the lengthy notice of the NEWS, in the last issue of his valuable paper. We are glad to see that he has observed our efforts to publish a paper at such price as to be within the reach of the masses of the people, and that he has called the attention of his readers to the fact. As the Chronicle says, our weekly, made up from the daily, can be published at very small cost, and this being the case, we have put it down at a very low price—$1 per year—for the purpose of securing for it a large circulation, and disseminating sound Democratic doctrine among the people at large. Our contemporary is right in saying that we have flooded the State with this cheap weekly paper; it is true that it has a circulation approaching 3,700. As to our daily, it is also more than reasonably low; it is the same in price as the Petersburg and Norfolk papers; $1 cheaper than the Richmond Dispatch, and $1 cheaper than the New York Sun. We hope always to merit the good words of our brethren of the press, and be always able to put a good paper within the reach of the people.

Mayor's Court.

Yesterday Mayor Manly had a rather full docket. The following cases were disposed of:

Fab. Chavis, col., drunk and disorderly, fined $5 and cost, and in default of payment thereof went to jail for 30 days.

Mary Jordan and Ellen Fleetmore, a couple of female admirers of the Returning Board system, affray; bound over to court in a bond of $125 each.

Nelson Farrar, col., fast driving, $2.25 and cost.

Nick Alford, col., assault and battery; case continued until Monday for witnesses and Nicholas remains in the station house.

Thomas Walker, col., fast driving, $2.25 and cost.

W. Jones, col., fast driving, $2 25 and cost.

Marcus Williams, fast driving, $2.25 and cost.

A number of cases were continued until Monday.

Meeting of Committee.

The committee to arrange for the demonstration on the occasion of Gov. Vance's inauguration, met last evening at the Mayor's office. Capt. A. B. Andrews was added to the committee to collect subscriptions, and it was decided that the committee shall wait upon the citizens on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next, for their contributions.

Clubs are expected from all parts of the State, to take part in the torch-light procession and bear torches and transparencies It must not be supposed that any effort is being made to make this a Raleigh demonstration. It is to be a demonstration of joy by the whole people of the State of North Carolina

A great deal of time was spent last evening in the discussion of various matters pertaining to the proposed demonstration, but the plan of procedure will not take definite shape until next Thursday night, when the committee will meet again.

The Vote on the Constitutional Amendments.

His Excellency the Governor stated to us yesterday that he would rather not permit a reporter to copy the returns of the vote on the constitutional amendments until he shall have time to overlook the figures again and issue his proclamation. We will be able, we hope, to lay the vote by counties before the readers of the next issue of the NEWS.

We have learned this much concerning the election: Total vote for ratification in the counties, 120 159; for rejection, 106,554; majority for ratification, 13 605. The majority in the three irregularly returned counties is 486, which, had these counties been properly returned, would have made the majority for ratification 14,091.

These are the things that Judge Settle said in all his speeches were "too dead to skin"

Death of S. Edward Hines.

The announcement of the death of this gentleman will send a thrill of genuine sorrow to many hearts in this city, where he resided from infancy to early manhood—was loved and esteemed for many good qualities of both head and heart Humanity can never be without faults, but it is no exaggerated tribute to the memory of Mr. Hines to say that his were of the kind that are most easily condoned, as they contained no repulsive element. Frank and genial in his disposition, courteous in his bearing and generous and honorable in his dealings, he was [illegible] by a large circle of friends and Address[illegible] him nott[illegible] dence of [illegible] berland the 34th

Present to a Lodge.

We saw yesterday at Ziegler's cigar store, a fine photographic group of the four original members of the organization of the Knights of Pythias. These are: Justus H Rathbone—who is the founder of the order—D. L. Burnett, E. S. Kimball and W. H. Burnett. They organized the first lodge of the Knights of Pythias in Washington City in 1865. This picture of which we speak is to be presented to Cumberland Lodge, No. 5, K. of P. of Fayetteville, by Past Grand Chancellor Samuel Merrill, of this city, who is also the chosen grand representative to the Supreme Lodge of the United States which holds its next annual session in Indianapolis, Ind., next August.

Emancipation Celebration.

A meeting of the colored citizens of Raleigh and vicinity was held at the Court House on Friday evening last, for the purpose of making arrangements to celebrate the 14th anniversary of the emancipation proclamation, which occurs on the 1st of January. But owing to the fact, that the inauguration of Gov Vance takes place on that day, a question arose in regard to postponing it until the 2nd or 6th prox. Hence, by a motion, a committee of five was appointed by O. Hunter, Jr., who presided, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of postponing the celebration and to report at a meeting to be held at the Court House on Tuesday night next at 7 o'clock.

How it is in Watauga.

We people who think it is cold here just don't know anything at all about cold weather. Senator Bingham, of Watauga, has just received a letter from home stating that up there the snow lies on the ground 15 inches deep. It is the coldest weather, so the letter writer says, that has ever been felt in that county at any season of the year. The roads are impassible, everything is frozen up, and they are having a time of it up in Watauga.

United States Circuit Court.

The court met yesterday morning at the usual hour, 10 o'clock.

The only jury case tried was that of Samuel Hill, adm'r. vs. Cyrus Mendenhall. Major J. W Graham, of Hillsboro, appeared for the plaintiff, and Merrimon, Fuller and Ashe, of this city, for the defendant. The verdict was in favor of the defendant. The equity docket was disposed of. The juries were discharged. The court will probably adjourn Tuesday.

How It Is Down There.

Capt. Tom. Arrington is now running a freight train on the Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line Railroad. He says Moore county is haunted, and Cameron is as bad as Tear Shirt, on the Wilmington Road, used to be. The people of the county, he says, drink spotted water, bring turpentine to Cameron and get drunk. The woods are full of haunts and the people fight like mad when they get intoxicated.

Sheriff Settlements.

The following sheriffs of the counties named below, settled yesterday with the State Treasurer, paying into the treasury the sums next after their names: Sheriff Fereby, of Camden, $1 695 61; Sheriff Causeler, of Macon, $1 793.91; Sheriff Cline, of Catawba, $6,023.23; Sheriff Shelton, of Haywood, $2 082 20; Sheriff Wiseman, of Mitchell, $792.05.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Mr. Joseph Howard, the well known tailor, was stricken with paralysis as he left his shop last evening, and dropped on the street. He was put in a buggy and carried home, and medical aid summoned. The probable result of the stroke are unknown.

Penitentiary Sunday School.

The teachers connected with the Sunday School at the penitentiary, are requested to meet this afternoon, promptly at 2:15 P. M. It is earnestly desired that every teacher be present, as the new organization takes effect.

Another Case in Point.

One ober 25th, a young lady, living in Olive street, St. Louis, Mo., was crossing a room with a lighted lamp in her hand. Her foot caught in a rug she stumbled, dropped her lamp. It broke, the kerosene oil took fire, exploded and burned her to death. If her lamp had been filled with Pratt's Astral Oil, no fire would have occurred, no explosion have taken place; and that young woman would be alive and well to day Pratt's Astral Oil is absolutely safe. Burns in any lamp. Free from smell and smoke. Has been before the public sixteen years, and never an accident directly or indirectly from its use. Julius Lewis & Co. Hardware Merchants, Raleigh, N. THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

YESTERDAY was the coldest of the season.

THE Northern Democrats became ubilant, after the news from Oregon was flashed over the wires.

THE news from Oregon had a terribly depressing effect upon Republicans all over the country. Their "little game" was working very well, until Governor Grover came upon the scene.

PRESIDENT GRANT has purchased a house in Washington. It may be that he expects to be General of the Army, under Samuel J. Tilden. An agreement on the part of the Democrats to substitute Grant for Sherman, would quickly smooth down all the difficulties in Tilden's path to the White House.

THE impeachment of Governor Chamberlain is seriously talked of in the South Carolina Democratic House. Already the Judiciary Committee has been instructed to take the necessary preliminary steps. Chamberlain is the worst enemy the South Carolinians ever had. No fate would be too severe for him.

A NUMBER of Massachusetts people are preparing to plant a colony in Burke county. They will be welcomed into our midst. Nothing will tend so much to advance the prosperity of North Carolina, as the filling up of our untenanted lands with good, substantial, honest intentioned immigrants from the Northern States. Our policy should be to neglect no means of giving encouragement to movements of this kind.

THE outrages practiced upon Moses Howard, a colored Democrat, living in Charlotte, calls to mind other instances of persecutions for political opinion's sake. The grand juries should be prompt to investigate these crimes, and bring the offenders to condign punishment. The negroes must be taught that such acts of violence will not be tolerated. A State law to punish persons guilty of misdeeds of this nature, would have a wholesome restraining effect.

THE suggestion of Judge Fowle for the position of Attorney-General of the United States, meets with a flattering endorsement from the press. Elsewhere we publish an article on the subject from the Hillsboro Recorder. Mr. Tilden owes a great deal to North Carolina. The Radicals boasted that they would carry the State. For a long time it was set down as doubtful. But, notwithstanding these calculations and boasts, and in spite of all the efforts of the Republican leader, North Carolina gave her ten electoral votes to Mr. Tilden. No other State can present stronger claims for a cabinet position.

A UNION meeting, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be held at the Presbyterian Church to-night. The principal object is to arouse the attention of christian people to the wants of the poor of this city. A cold, hard and long winter is before us. Much suffering must necessarily result to the destitute—unless there is organized effort on the part of charitable citizens to extend the relief needed. We trust that the noble efforts of the Young Men's Christian Association in this regard will meet with a warm, and cordial response. Already application has been made to the Association by the suffering poor, and thus far they have been unable to answer these with the assistance so much needed.

THE GEOLOGICAL DEPARTMENT.

Each succeeding session of the Legislature brings a renewal of the efforts to abolish this useful feature in State institutions, or so to cripple it, as to shear if of half its usefulness; and to the credit of each succeeding Legislature, the assaults upon it have only had the effect to bring out its value and its labors in more conspicuous lustre. We cannot hope that the department can escape the attacks of this Legislature also. We can only hope that this one, too, may become, like its predecessors, enlightened up to that point that will not only secure the department from destruction, but go farther, and confirm it upon an indestructible basis.

It is natural that labors, whose effects are not patent to every eye, and whose developments could not have enriched every section, should be looked upon with distrust, and regarded as wasteful extravagance. But it must be remembered that works which, if rightly constructed, are to endure for generations, cannot be perfected except through that slow progress which wisdom suggests and experience justifies. Least of all, can it be done with one like a geological survey, a work whose basis is coextensive with the broad limits of the State of North Carolina, and whose investigations penetrate into the recesses of so many and such varied subjects. The survey has been the work of many years. It must be the work of many more. Each step in its progress shows the infinity of new subjects suggested or developed as research goes on. It is a work, not for one man or one generation, but for successive men and succeeding generations. Of the ninety-six counties of North Carolina, none of them are without subjects of interest, of value, and of State pride. And to the knowledge of them and of their value, the State is, to more than any other source, indebted to the Geological Department and to the State Geologist. With but a portion of the State yet critically examined, astonishing developments of hitherto unsuspected treasure in all the elements of national wealth have been brought to light. But for disastrous political and financial complications, they would long since have been utilized.

Through the information disseminated from this department, and that information gathered by the science and personal energy of the State Geologist, North Carolina is better known to the world than North Carolinians are aware of. Through his zeal, the great expositions at Vienna and of Philadelphia have been adorned with the products of North Carolina, and foreigners as well as citizens of the United States stand ready, under more auspicious political skies, to rush in with their capital to realize the varied fruits of enterprise promised under unsurpassed conditions of climate, soil, mineral wealth, productions of the forest, water power and geographical relations to the markets of the world.

Already the work of the survey has brought forth rich fruits. To it is owing the knowledge and development of the Ore Knob Copper Mines in Ashe county, already resulting in the expenditure of many hundred thousand dollars in this State by citizens of other States. To the same agency is due the expenditures upon the copper and iron mines upon Deep River, the opening up of navigation on that stream, and the expenditure of over half a million brought here from abroad. And to the same agency is due the now recognized value of the marls of the eastern part of the State, and the grand fortune opened to the agricultural of that section of the State.

The work of the State Geologist is silent and unobserved. His consciousness of the value of his own services, is almost his only reward. Yet one has only to visit the Museum in this city, unfortunately too little known and too little visited, to comprehend the extent of his work. Still in its infancy, yet rich in its collections, it is a perfect compendium of the mineral treasures of the State, showing, that, if every farm in the State has not been visited, yet almost every county has, and that every one has proved the value of the investigation.

We might say much more on the value of the department in its relation to agriculture, but our article has already run its length.

We can only add that we hope and we believe the institution will be spared—not only spared, but given increased liberty and power. It is the glory of North Carolina that she was the first State in the South to adopt the enlightened policy of geological investigation. Let it not be her shame, that while other States have followed her example and with enlarging liberality, she should now retrace her steps, and plunge again into darkness. It may be that we are even now standing upon the very threshold of a glorious future. Shall the State, on the very verge of a brighter day, extinguish the brightest light that leads her to her fortunes, and trust to the blind guide of uncultivated experience, and grope her ignorant way over buried treasures concealed from the eyes of all but the penetrating vision of science?

TILDEN ELECTED.

The pivotal point of the Presidential question now is the Cronin electoral vote. All turns upon this. If it stands, Mr. Tilden will be inaugurated on the 4th of March; if it is overturned, the inauguration of Hayes is equally certain.

Since the day of election, when the popular majority was recorded against the Republicans and all seemed lost, their leading object has been to get 185 electoral votes under the broad seals of the States. For this purpose, the Returning Boards of Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina were instructed from Washington to count in Hayes. To this end, the Democratic majorities were cut down; the will of the people deliberately nullified; Supreme Courts defied; Legislatures organized at the point of the bayonet; and the sword put in authority over the law.

By glaring acts of usurpation and the employment of the most despotic means, the object of the Republican manipulators was achieved. Hayes was "counted in" from South Carolina, Florida, and Louisiana; the board seals of these States being attached to the certificates of the electors who cast their 19 votes—thus giving Mr. Hayes the requisite majority, 185 votes, Oregon's three votes being included.

The idea with the Republicans was that the certificates of the Electoral Colleges would be accepted as conclusive, the strongest and most indubitable rebutting evidence being necessary to impeach their validity. The plan was well conceived, and boldly and adroitly carried out to a successful issue. The whole of it rested upon this truth, that the American people would see that he would be inaugurated President on the 4th of next March who came to Washington with 185 properly certified electoral votes.

And so they will. But, unfortunately for the supporters of Mr. Hayes, the whole scheme is suddenly upset by the unexpected loss of a vote in Oregon, which they never, in their most searching examinations of the electoral colleges, suspected could be lost to them. They did not realize that the constitution and laws of the country are not dead letters to all Governors. Besotted as they are with illegal use of power, it never once entered into their heads that Governor Grover would, in defiance of the will of the Federal Administration, have regard to his oath of office, follow precedent, obey the laws and enforce the constitutional mandate to the extent of his power. Just here the winning card turns up, and the Radical tricksters lose the game.

Instead of Mr. Hayes, it is Mr. Tilden who goes to Washington with 185 electoral votes under "the broad seals of the States." According to the doctrine of the Republicans themselves, this secures him the election. They have said that Congress should not go behind the certificates so sealed; that they are conclusive evidence of the people's will. And President Grant has broadly intimated that the fortunate possessor of a majority so constituted, would be inaugurated in spite of all opposition.

They, the Republicans, have been beaten at their own game. "They digged a pit, and have fallen into it themselves." Nothing can extricate them from their impending ruin but revolution—the arbitrary exercise of the Federal power. This course they dare not attempt. They may attempt to frighten the Democrats out of the impregnable position in which they are now securely lodged; but in this they will fail. The bluff game never succeeds, when courageous men are its objects. The National Democratic party now has nothing to do in order to seat Tilden and Hendricks but to give the Republicans to understand that Oregon's vote shall stand as recorded in the Electoral College, and that the constitutional majority which this secures shall be maintained, at all hazards. If the Democrats in Congress need backbone they should reflect that Tilden's popular majority is a half million.

A lot of corn was sold in Newbern last Wednesday for the low price of 40 cents.

The Salem Press argues in favor of a chain gang in that municipality.

The telegraphic wires have got nearly to Hendersonville, and Asheville is raising a subscription of $300 to have them extended to that town.

The residence of Mr. G. M. Altaffer, corner of Chesnut and McRae streets Wilmington, was entered by a thief on Monday night last and robbed of money to the amount of $15.

Mr. Jenkins, who was called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church of Warrenton withdraws his acceptance. Rev. Mr. Mundy, of Virginia, has been called, we learn from the Gazette, but has not yet answered.

The boats are once more going through the Dismal Swamp canal.

The young men of Wadesboro propose getting up a dramatic club.

The Observer says that last Wednesday night while the family of Col. R. M. Oates were in the retting room after supper, the colored nurse rushed in, screaming at the top of her voice and struck Mrs. Oates a severe blow in the face. She then struck Mrs. A B Springs several times and started to the cradle as if to kill the child lying there. Mrs. McKensie threw herself between the cradle and the infuriated woman and received painful bruises At this juncture Col Oates appeared, seized the woman and put her out, and in the hands of the police It seems that the woman had eaten a quantity of pure camphor, which had crazed her entirely. She recovered the next morning.

Judge Fowle for Attorney General of the United States.

(Hillsboro Recorder.)

Hoping and believing, as we sincerely do, that the present unfortunate complications now threatening the peace of the country will eventually be cleared away by the peaceful recognition of the rightful claims of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, we are at liberty to look to the period of the inauguration of Mr Tilden for the beginning of the recognition of the South as an integral part of the country, with some rights to share in the honors and the responsibilities of administration. We believe,—and in that belief,—gave cordial and unreserved support to the Nominee, that Mr. Tilden is a man of enlightened views, and of generous confidence, and is wise enough to be satisfied not only that the South is to be trustee, but is entitled to an unquestioned share in cabinet appointments. He ought to know, and he does know, that white Southern statesmen make no demand for such share, the best evidence he could give of the catholicity of his patriotism would be to prove it by the selection of one gentleman at least from the South, removing by this happy stroke both of policy and justice, that dis rust which has been the bane and the reproach of the present administration.

It was a happy inspiration that suggested to a writer in the Burke Blade, the name of Daniel G. Fowle as an eminently suitable one to present for appointment to the Attorney Generalship of the United States. Of all our eminent politicians, no man presents himself with so few salient points for the attacks of prejudice or distrust, whilst no one was truer to the South from sincerity of convictions, no man since the war has been more loyal in his adhesion to the new order of things, no man more earnest in his efforts for the restoration of harmony, no man more sincere in the recognition of a restored Union, the country of one people. And he has enforced his views with vigor and unsurpassed ability, bringing the full force of transcendent talents and magnificent eloquence to the consummation of a purpose close to his heart.

As a lawyer, he is the peer of any man in the country, not merely as an advocate, not merely as one versed in the laws of his own State, but one whose capacious brain is stored with all the love of national, international and constitutional law one, who if advanced to the pre-eminence we ask for him would enter upon his duties as no novice, but as one ready to grapple at once with the perplexing questions now constantly arising, and as one too, who, from the broadness of his views, would execute his commission in no partisan spirit.

If Mr. Tilden is to have a gentleman from the South in his Cabinet, we ask that it may be Judge Fowle.

STATEMENT OF GOV. GROVER

TWO SETS ELECTORAL VOTES!

FLORIDA REVERSED IN OREGON.

The Tilden Electors Fortified with the Governor's Certificate.

The Hayes Electors relying upon a Certified statement from the Secretary of State.

[Special to the Daily News.]

SALEM, OREGON, Dec. 8.—Oregon will send two sets of electoral votes, one class being two votes for Hayes and one for Tilden, having the Governor's certificate, the other class being three votes for Hayes based on a certified statement of votes cast made by the Secretary of State. The Governor decided that P M Watts, one of the Republicans voted for as Elector, was not eligible under the constitution; that by the law of this State there can be no vacancy in office unless there has been an incumbent. As far as Watts was concerned, he was never an incumbent, as his approach to the office was barred by the constitution. The three highest eligible candidates were the electors and certificates were issued accordingly, two being Republicans and one a Democrat, the two Republicans refused to act with the Democrats. He acted and filled the vacancies as provided under the laws of Oregon. In case of refusal to act, the Republicans claimed a vacancy and filled it by electing Watts and thus two sets of votes were sent up to Washington. Upon the question of regularity, the college in which a vote for Tilden was cast was clearly the one held under our laws. There was not the slightest difficulty nor undue means used to influence action. The Democrats, to a man, support Governor Grover in his views. Those who denounce him sustain counting of Tilden out in South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana.

Private Secretary.

Mexican Affairs—Scheme to Plunder Merchants—The Flight of Ledros Confirmed—The New French Cabinet.

MATAMORAS, MEXICO Dec. 9th.—Merchants have been called to a meeting by Gen. Revicellas to consult whether they would submit to a forced loan or personal labor on fortifications. It is thought that the invitation involves some scheme of plunder preparatory to the flight of Revicellas. President Lerdos' flight from the capitol is confirmed.

PARIS, Dec. 8—Midnight—The following list of members of the new cabinet is circulating here to-night: Dufoure, President of the Council and Minister of Worship; Bardoux, Keeper of the Seals; Simon, Minister of the Interior. The other heads of departments are unchanged. This gives the ministeries of the Interior and Justices to the pure Left. The question is whether President McMahon will accept this list to which the majority of the Left consents.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

A Presidential Denial—The Action of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections—Sub-Committees to go South—Investigations Deferred.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Prof. Seelye, member of Congress, believes that the Presidential contest will be thrown into the House.

The President to-day, upon application by card for a confirmation of the statement published that the cabinet yesterday determined to sustain Chamberlain as Governor de facto and de jure, to recognize the Mackey House and not to withdraw the troops from the State Capitol, &c., replied that there was no truth in the statement.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections discussed the best plan of conducting the investigation ordered by the Senate under Edmunds' resolution. It was resolved to send sub committees immediately to Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina. The committee for Louisiana—Howe, Wadleigh, McMillan, Boutwell, McDonald, Saulsbury; for Florida—Mitchell, Teller, Hooper; for South Carolina—Cameron, of Wisconsin, Christiancy, Merrimon. The committees expect to leave Monday.

All questions of law regarding the elections in Oregon, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, and concerning the eligibility of Presidential electors in these States, were referred to a sub-committee, consisting of Morton, Logan and Kernan, to report to a full committee at a future meeting until which time all action regarding the four States named is deferred.

A Saucy and Pointed Letter from Ruger—Everything Quiet But More Troops Coming.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 9.—The following was received by the Committee of the Democratic House:

COLUMBIA, Dec. 8th, '76.

To Hon. W. A. Conner and other gentlemen of the Committee:

I have the honor to say in reply to your inquiries, based upon the resolution, of which you handed me a copy on yesterday, that the United States troops in the State House were placed there by my order, for the purpose of executing such orders as might be given, and in this connection I would say, with reference to the inquiries numbered 6 and 7, that if your body should appear at the State House for the purpose of entering the Hall of the House of Representatives, and should be refused admission by those having charge of the doors, and such persons should apply to the officer in command of the troops at the State House for assistance necessary to prevent your entering, the present orders to the officers would require them to render such assistance. I am, gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,
THOS. H. RUGER,
Col and Brev't Brig. Gen'l Dep't of the South.

Except more federal troops enroute to this place, everything is remarkably quiet.

THE BROOKLYN FIRE.

The Remains of Murdock, the Actor, Fully Identified.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—Workmen engaged in clearing the stage yesterday noticed that a strong odor proceeded from a heap of bricks near the left proscenium box, and came to the conclusion that a body was beneath. This morning the bricks were carefully removed, and beneath them was found the charred body of a man. The right leg and about one-third of the right side of the trunk escaped the flames. The head and upper part of the body were consumed. One fireman noticed a piece of black velvetine attached to the knee of the leg, and this fact caused the belief that its remains were those of Murdock. They were afterwards examined and fully identified as being those of Murdock. The body heretofore supposed to be Murdock's must now be placed among the unknown.

Invigorate, and Be Healthy.

The source of nine-tenths of the bodily ills of mankind is a deficiency of vital power. No portion of the physical machinery can efficiently perform its allotted duty if there is insufficient motive force in the system. Invigorate, therefore, in order to regain health. For the restoration of the vitality, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are the best tonic that can be selected, since they naturally impart fresh vigor to the debilitated system, and overcome all forms of the stomach, liver and bowels which originate from, complete assimilation of the food, and thus prepare unwholesome. The bitters likewise cure and prevent malarious fevers remedy debility, arrest troubles, and eliminate from the blood through the kidneys the impurities which originate gout, rheumatism and dropsy. Appetite, digestion, sleep—in short every sensible condition of health are promoted by their use.

Dr. Wm Stewart, Marine Hospital Fort of Baltimore: "I take pleasure in recommending Valden's Liebig's Liquid Extract Beef as a most excellent tonic and invigorator of the system. I have tested it with universal success."
